Claire Entwistle: Co-opted governor (Duddon): I am a teacher at Duddon St Peter's Primary School where it has been my pleasure to teach for over 15 years and in total, I have taught for over 20 years, starting my teaching career in inner-city Liverpool. In school, I am part of the Literacy team, with my expertise lying within EYFS and KS1, including Year Three. I lead the Maths team with Mrs Tench, and am the Humanities lead, enabling me to share my passion for both History and Geography. I also have the responsibility of being the More Able Lead on the governing body. I regularly attend all governor meetings throughout the year. c.entwistle@dstp.cheshire.sch.uk
Adam Friend: Vicar & Foundation governor (Duddon): Chair of Steering Committee Having been a governor at four different schools over the years, I bring with me a wealth of experience as well as general governor knowledge base. I have been a chair of governors in the past and recognise how much time and effort this takes. As a governor, children always come first, with staff and parents a close second. As a foundation governor for St Peter's, I bring with me a solid church background (I'm sure you would expect nothing more), keeping the moral ethos of the school in all things and a basis of how the church can partner the school for the well-being of the children. I am the link governor for the EYFS.
Rachael Goodwin: Staff governor (Barrow): rgoodwin@barrowce.cheshire.sch.uk

Paul Hudson: Head teacher: Member of Steering Committee Having taught at Duddon since 1997, I became Head teacher in 2005. My philosophy is centred around the interests of the whole child, as children need self-belief in order to become passionate about their learning. I am driven to use funding effectively to maintain a high standard and ensure progress for all children, regardless of any barriers to learning which they may have. head@dstp.cheshire.sch.uk
Rev. Julian Osborne: Foundation ex-officio (Barrow): revjulianosborne@gmail.com I am the link governor for Mental Health and Wellbeing.
Katie Pierce: Foundation governor (Duddon): Vice-chair of governors: Member of Steering Committee My daughter attended Duddon School and more years ago than I care to remember I also attended Duddon School. From my years there I have so many fond memories of a wonderful education environment just as it still is today. I've worked within financial services for 20 years and my role as a Chartered Financial Planner requires many varied skills which I hope to bring to the governing board. I work with corporate and personal clients and numbers every day. My job is to listen and understand their life plans and objectives whilst explaining often very technical information and options in a manner that can be clearly understood. I offer a guiding hand when people are sometimes making once in a lifetime decisions. I felt these skills will be of benefit to the school and governing body as part of the Finance Committee and a general governor role in supporting the school community. I believe together our pupils, parents, staff and governors can continue to build a fantastic environment for our children so they can flourish and enjoy a positive educational experience to be the best they can be both now and in their future.
